

Baltimore County Public Schools

Good Evening Sandy Plains Families,

This is Mr. Harrington with the weekly message.

School News

- This week is Teacher Appreciation Week. We are excited to honor our AMAZING Sandy Plains' Teachers. Throughout the week, teachers will be receiving special treats from local businesses and our PTA. We are also encouraging our students to write a thank you card to their teachers as a way to honor all that our teachers do. We are thankful to have a group of educators that work hard to support our Sandy Plains students. Thank you Sandy Plains teachers!!
- Tomorrow is conference day for Kindergarten and Pre-K parents. There will be no school for Kindergarten and Pre-K students only on Monday. School will be open for all 1st through 5th grade students on Monday. In addition, Pre-K will also be holding conferences on Tuesday. This means there is no school for Pre-K students only on Monday and Tuesday. There will be school on Tuesday for all Kindergarten through 5th grade students on Tuesday.
- Mom's Night will be taking place on Tuesday night from 4:30-6:00pm. In order to attend all participants must have turned in their RSVP form. The doors will open at 4:15pm. This event will highlight positive female role models and the important role they play in the lives of our students. Thanks to everyone who has turned in their RSVP form and we look forward to seeing you on Tuesday evening!
- Wednesday is School Night at the North Point Library. Please consider visiting the North Point Library on Wednesday evening and signing up for the summer reading program as well.

PTA News

- McDonald's Night is this Wednesday from 4-7pm. Proceeds raised will go directly to our Sandy Plains PTA.
- Our annual PTA flower sale is this Friday. Students will be visiting the flower sale during their class's designated time. Information about the flower sale was sent home last week. If you have any questions please call our main office.

Thanks for your continued support and have a wonderful evening!
